PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT*New Delhi, the 26th August 1968THE PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT (GAZETTED AND NON-GAZETTED POSTS) RECRUITMENT RULES, 1968

G.S.R. 1638.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to posts in the President's Secretariat, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the President's Secretariat (Gazetted and Non-Gazetted posts) Recruitment Rules, 1968.

(2) They shall come into force on 1st October, 1968.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) “appointing authority” means the authority vested with powers to appoint persons to posts in the Secretariat in officiating or substantive capacities either through direct recruitment or deputation or transfer or otherwise;
- (b) “deputation” means the temporary transfer or loan of the services of an officer from or to the Secretariat or from any office outside the Secretariat;
- (c) “disciplinary authority”, in relation to the imposition of a penalty on an officer, means the authority specified under the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965, as the authority competent to impose on him that penalty;
- (d) “officer” means a person appointed to, or borne on the strength of, the staff of the Secretariat;
- (e) “post” means a post in the Secretariat and shall be deemed to be a post in Class I, Class II, Class III or Class IV, according as such post is specified in Class I, Class II, Class III or Class IV, as the case may be, in Schedule I, Schedule II, or Schedule III;
- (f) “President” means the President of India;
- (g) “Schedule” means a Schedule to these rules;
- (h) “Secretariat” means the President's Secretariat, that is to say, the Office of the Secretary to the President.

3. Strength and composition of the President's Secretariat.—(1) There shall be in the President's Secretariat—

- (a) such number of permanent posts as are specified in Schedule I;
- (b) such number of posts, permanent or temporary, of the categories specified in Schedule II, ordinarily tenable on a tenure basis by the incumbents during the pleasure of the President and
- (c) such number of temporary posts of the categories specified in Schedule III as may be sanctioned from time to time.

- (2) The President may, from time to time, amend Schedule I, II or III by increasing or reducing the number of posts specified therein or by adding thereto any new category of post or posts or by removing therefrom any existing category of post or posts.

4. Name of posts, classification and scales of pay.—The name of the posts, their classification and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 1 to 3 of Schedule IV to these rules.

Provided that the appointing authority may, from time to time, by general or special order, amend the classification or scale of pay of any post in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government in this regard from time to time.

5. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment to the posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said posts shall be as specified in columns 4 to 13 of Schedule IV aforesaid:

Provided that the upper age limit prescribed for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes or other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

6. Substantive appointment in the posts of the Secretariat.—An officer holding temporary or officiating appointment in a post may be appointed in a substantive capacity in that post or in a lower post if he has worked in such lower post in accordance with the order of seniority.

7. Seniority.—The seniority of employees shall be determined in accordance with the general rules made by the Ministry of Home Affairs or, in the absence of any such rules, in accordance with specific rules made in consultation with that Ministry.

8. Probation and confirmation.—(1) Candidates appointed to posts in the Secretariat, either by selection or promotion or otherwise, shall be on probation for the period specified in column 8 of Schedule IV to these rules:

Provided that the appointing authority may, at its discretion, take into account—

- (i) any period of service rendered by the candidate in posts carrying equivalent or higher responsibilities;
 - (ii) in the case of a promotee to any post, any period of officiating service rendered by him in that post, for the purpose of computing the said period.
- (2) On the completion of the period of probation the candidates shall, if considered fit for permanent appointment, be confirmed in their appointments subject to the availability of substantive vacancies in permanent posts.
- (3) The appointing authority may extend the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1) and if, on the expiration of the period of probation or of any extended period thereof, as the case may be, the appointing authority is of opinion that a candidate is not fit for permanent appointment or if at any time during such period of probation or extended period thereof, the appointing authority is satisfied that the candidate will not be fit for permanent appointment on the expiration of such probation or extended period thereof, it may discharge him or revert him to his substantive post or pass such orders as it may think fit.
- (4) During the period of probation, the candidates may be required by the appointing authority to undergo such courses of training and instruction and to pass such examinations and tests as it may think fit as a condition to the satisfactory completion of the period of probation.

9. Conditions of service of officers on deputation to the Secretariat.—(1) An officer while on deputation to the Secretariat shall be governed by such general terms and conditions of deputation as may be laid down by the Central Government from time to time or such terms and conditions as may be settled between his parent office and the Secretariat.

(2) No officer holding a post listed in Schedule II shall be eligible to be appointed to any of the posts listed in Schedule I, unless specially authorised by the President.

10. Discipline and control.—Every officer shall be governed by the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965.

11. Conduct of officers.—Every officer shall be governed by the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964, and orders made thereunder from time to time by the Ministry of Home Affairs.

12. Conditions of service of temporary officers.—Every temporary officer shall be governed by the Central Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1964, and orders made thereunder from time to time by the Ministry of Home Affairs.

13. Reservation.—Reservation of posts shall be made for the members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the orders issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time.

14. Disqualifications.—(a) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the posts; and

(b) no woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the posts;

Provided that the President may, if he is satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

15. Conditions of service.—(1) In respect of all matters for which no provision has been made in these rules, the rules and orders issued by the Central Government, from time to time, for officers of equivalent rank, shall apply.

(2) For the purpose of this rule the posts specified in column (2) of Schedule V shall correspond to the posts in the Central Secretariat or its attached offices specified in the corresponding entries in column (3) of that Schedule.

16. Regulations.—The President may make regulations not inconsistent with these rules to provide for all matters for which provision may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to these rules.

17. Power to relax.—The President may, if he is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so in the public interest, by order and for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons/posts.

18. Repeal and saving.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in these rules, all rules corresponding to these rules and in force immediately before the commencement of these rules are hereby repealed:

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.

19. Power to remove difficulty.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of these rules the President may, after consultation with the Ministry of Home Affairs and/or the Ministry of Finance as the case may be, by order, make such directions, not inconsistent with the provisions of these rules, as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for the removal of the difficulty.

New Delhi, the 5th September 1968

G.S.R. 1664.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 and section 3A of the Foreigners Act, 1946 (31 of 1946), the Central Government hereby makes the following Order, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This order may be called the Foreigners (Restrictions on Residence) Order, 1968.

(2) It shall come into force on the date of its publication in the official Gazette.

2. Definition.—In this Order—

(1) 'civil authority' means such authority as may be appointed by the Central Government in this behalf for such area as it thinks fit;

(2) 'consular post' means any consulate-general, consulate, vice-consulate or consular agency.

3. Restrictions on residence of foreigners in certain areas.—No foreigner (other than a foreigner who is a member of a foreign diplomatic mission or consular post or trade mission or a member of his family forming part of the household of such foreigner, or a person in the private employment of such foreigner or of a member of his family) shall, except under and in accordance with the permission in writing of the civil authority, stay or reside in any premises or area belonging to, or occupied by, any foreign diplomatic mission, consular post or trade mission in India.

4. Permission when to be refused.—(1) Where permission is applied for under paragraph 3 of this Order, such permission shall be refused if the civil authority is satisfied that—

- (a) the foreigner has failed to comply with any order, instruction, or process issued under the Foreigners Act, 1946 (31 of 1946);
- (b) the foreigner's presence is required to answer a criminal charge or in connection with any civil proceeding;
- (c) the grant of such permission may prejudice the relations of the Central Government with a foreign power; or
- (d) the grant of such permission may not be conducive to the public interest.

(2) Whenever a civil authority refuses to grant permission as aforesaid, it shall report the matter forthwith to the Central Government, which may cancel or modify the order in such manner as it thinks fit.

5. Partial modification of Foreigners (Exemption) Order, 1957.—This Order shall be in partial modification of the Foreigners (Exemption) Order, 1957 (Order of the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs No. 1/28/55-F.III, dated 19th January, 1957) and shall, notwithstanding anything contained therein, have effect, in relation to persons to whom that order applies.

[No. 6/24/68-F.I.]

G.S.R. 1665.—In pursuance of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 2 of the Foreigners (Restrictions on Residence) Order, 1968, published with the notification of the Government of India, in the Ministry of Home Affairs No. 6/24/68-F.I., dated 5th September, 1968, the Central Government hereby appoints every civil authority appointed in pursuance of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 2 of the Foreigners Order, 1948, in respect of any area, as the civil authority for the purpose of the Foreigners (Restrictions on Residence) Order, 1968 in respect of that area.
